

Camden Cotton Market

Corrected by Baum Bros. Thursday morning, December, 18th, 1890. Demand good.

St. 1st Middlings, 918
Middlings, 978.

Any one wanting Christmas Goods, go to Mrs. S. Tweed.

If You Wish to See Fifty pieces of elegant black dress goods of all grades go to Baum Bros. This is our point.

Receiver Appointed. Mr. Samuel Lott, of Charleston, has been appointed Receiver, and Maj. John F. Jones, General Manager of the S.C. Rail Road.

New York Fabric Prices. One thousand yards just received. Two to five pieces colored Dress Silks of every shade imaginable at fifty cents per yard.

If you want to see a real good black silk, at our business place you can find it. Baum Bros.

Time Extended. The joint resolution extending the time for the payment of taxes without the penalty until February 1st has passed both the House and the Senate, and it only remains for it to be ratified and will be signed by the Governor as soon as it reaches him.

The State officers hold that the passage of the joint resolution is practically a law, and the County Treasurers will continue to receive taxes without penalty.

Don't Xecidde. Xecidling with your neighbors' business does not pay. Neighbor. Low prices does the work, quietly and faithfully. Our City like establishment is more crowded from morning until evening than ever before, all on account of a suit assort cut in every line and low prices. Think of it! Bleached cloth three cents per yard. Our place is where you can find any Christmas Present. If you are worried about what to get, walk in our Furniture Department, and you will go away satisfied; and do not forget that Boy's Suit at ninety five cents.

BAUM BROS.

Opera House Store. A sam'lot of Fine Bohemian Moss and other styl's fine Vases.

Also, a lot of cheap Vases, Bisque Figures, Toy Tea Sets, Doll's China Cups and Saucer, and China Plates, Fruit Saucers and Bowls, bought 25 per cent below value, and we will give you the benefit of the discount. J. C. MAN

Accident on the S.C.'s. As the down freight train on the S.C.'s Rail Road was about a mile from Camden, on Friday evening, several of the cars left the track, caused probably by the spreading of the rails. Mr. E. L. Phelps, brakeman, jumped out, (or was thrown out) against the embankment, and received a severe though not dangerous wound on the head and face. No other persons were injured. We understand the extent of the damage to the cars was not very great. Trains were running as usual Saturday evening.

American Legion of Honor. At a regular meeting of Adams Council No. 910, American Legion of Honor, held on Wednesday evening, 10th instant, the following officers were elected to serve the ensuing year:

- David Wolfe, Commander. A. W. Burnet, Vice Commander. S. M. Wilson, Orator. I. H. Alexander, Secretary. D. C. Kirkley, Collector. G. G. Alexander, Treasurer. Rev. J. M. Stoney, Chaplain. W. Geisenheimer, Guide. M. Tobias, Warden. F. E. Mathis, Sentinel, J. T. Hay, J. B. Steedman, and S. M. Rosenberger, Trustees.

Death of Mr. James T. Walling. The body of Mr. James T. Walling was brought over from Columbia and was buried in the family enclosure on Monday last. Mr. Walling was a native of Camden, being the son of the late Mr. J. D. Walling, who was so long and favorably known as the Section Master on the South Carolina Railway at this place. Jimmie Walling always bore the reputation of being a good boy—upright, honest, industrious and kind. He married a Miss Farmer, who was also formerly a resident of this place. He leaves a wife and two children and two sisters, Mrs. A. C. Brown and a younger sister, to whom we extend our sympathies in their untimely loss.

From the Columbia correspondence of the Charleston World of Monday we clip the following account of Mr. Walling's sad death.

The body of late Conductor J. T. Walling, killed near Newberry yesterday in a wreck, was brought home to his wife here to-day. It was horribly mutilated, the features being unrecognizable. His body will be taken to his native home, in Camden, tomorrow, for interment. Mr. Walling was not employed by the road, but by the construction company. He was 28 years old, formerly a section master, bridge keeper and train conductor on the South Carolina railway. Further particulars of the accident says the train was running four miles an hour, at the terminus of the line, when the track spread. The car careened, but did not go down the embankment. Walling went to jump, but his foot caught and fifty pieces of iron crashed on top of him.

The Legislature.

The two branches of the General Assembly continue to push business with a vim, especially since the halting for United States Senator was gotten rid of. There yet remain many important measures to be taken upon, but the alacrity with which our legislators proceed a great deal can be accomplished before adjournment.

There seems to be a disposition on the part of some to criticize more closely than usual the actions of the present Legislature. Possibly, under the circumstances, more may be expected of it. But, perhaps it would be well to wait and see what is done before criticizing to severity.

On Saturday Senator Magill introduced in the Senate a bill to empower the governor to remove from office all sheriffs and officers who wilfully fail to prevent lynchings and other acts of violence.

Senator Metzger introduced a bill to reorganize the University of South Carolina. It proposes radical changes in the organization of the University, in accord with the views of Governor Tillman, reducing the number of professors, abolishing some of the schools and reducing the number of trustees to nine.

The bill introduced by Mr. Moseley to regulate the granting of divorces, was killed. Also the bill to abolish the office of supervisor of registration and require the Auditors to perform the duties of said office.

Mr. Kirkland introduced a bill to provide a salary for the Clerk of Court of Kershaw County in lieu of fees now payable by said County. Also, a bill to provide for the levy and collection of a tax of two mills on the dollar in each school district in this State for the support of the public schools therein.

A bill to incorporate the city of Camden has passed the lower house.

FOR DYSPEPSIA, Indigestion, and Stomach disorder, use BROWN'S IRON BITTERS. All dealers keep it. $1 per bottle. Genuine has trade-mark and crossed red lines on wrapper.

FOR SALE. On the first Monday in January, 1891, that valuable property, known as "Millbank," one mile northeast of the town of Camden, and bounded on the east by the Factory Pond, will be sold at auction before the Court House in Camden. The property embraces about 30 acres of land with residence and outhouses thereon. With the premises will be conveyed the right to bring suit for the recovery of so much of the land as is occupied as a right of way by the Charleston, Cincinnati and Chicago Railroad.

Terms of sale:—One-fourth cash, and balance in one, two and three years, with interest from day of sale, to be secured by mortgage of premises, and assignment of policies of insurance upon buildings. Purchaser to pay for papers. For information, apply to W. D. TRANTHUM, Attorney. Dec. 18 90 td

MASTER'S SALE. South Carolina—Kershaw County. J. T. Hay, Mortgagee of Sarah J. Parnes, Real Estate et. al.

Under an order by virtue of a Decree of foreclosure in this case, I will sell at public outcry, before the Court House in Camden, within the legal hours of sale, on the first Monday in January next,

All that piece, parcel or tract of land lying, being and situate in Kershaw County, in the State aforesaid, on the waters of Grandy's Quarter Creek, containing Eight Hundred (800) acres, more or less, adjoining lands of A. J. McDowell, of Estate of John B. Mickle, of Samuel Young, Jacob Alexander, of Estate of Dr. John Milling, of Levi Kirkland, L. L. Clyburn and others.

TERMS OF SALE:—One-third cash, balance in one and two years, with interest from day of sale, payable annually. Purchasers to pay for papers. EDWARD M. BOYKIN, Master for Kershaw County. Dec. 18 90.

TOWN TAX NOTICE. The office of the Recorder will be open from the 1st day of January to the 20th day of January, 1891, inclusive, for receiving returns of all Real Estate and Personal Property for Taxation, J. L. DRASINGTON, Recorder. Dec. 4-4t.

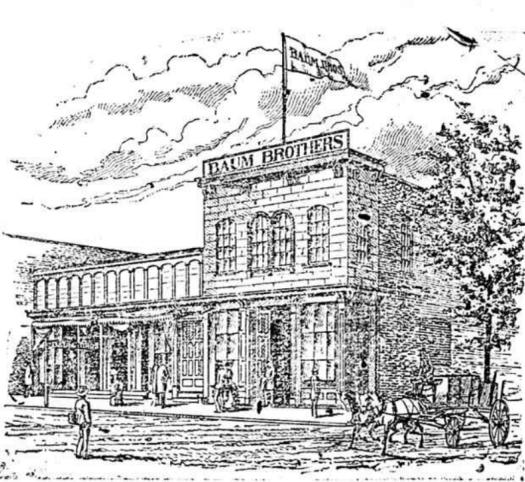

WE ARE READY! RING THE BELL! BEAT THE DRUM! TOOT THE HORN! LET THE CROWD COME IN!

And Take a Look at Our Magnificent Holiday Stock. On every point it will beat anything ever shown in this City. The Quality, Style and Prices are just what will suit you, and the assortment is large.

The performance has commenced, and people are already carrying away bargains in all varieties of Holiday Goods.

We are waiting to please you with gratifying bargains. Come and see them, at the old stand of Dr. F. L. ZEMP.

Dr. F. L. ZEMP.

THIS IS THE WAY WE DO IT!

We always try to make things attractive, but we do it in a quiet way. Yet we have kept moving onward and upward until we have now filled

FIVE FLOORS JAW UP,

(without counting our Warehouses,) with Goods, and now find that we have not yet room enough.

It is because we buy from first class Houses in large quantities for Cash, which enables us to sell our Goods at City prices, and keeps our business in a steadily growing condition.

We do not try to compete against our neighbors at home, but to the contrary, we wish them all well; but it is against the big magnates in the large Cities we try to compete, and why not? We buy where they buy, and we have the same advantages the Sterns, the Altmans and others of New York City have. We do not mind Charleston and Columbia. We can keep at par with them without much trouble.

We have succeeded in building up a business that is a pride to Camden—it is the largest in the up-country, never mind where you go. Five floors packed full with Goods, and the Rail Roads and Express brings them in every day. Always new Goods at lowest market prices.

We employ twelve Clerks, and never dismiss one during the Summer season, for we find employment for them the whole year through.

You can find at our place of business anything you wish from a cured Hog to a live Mule—from a Homespun Dress to a Silk one—from Kitchen to Parlor Furniture—from a Needle to an Anvil. We sell them cheap for cash and on credit to all who are deserving. All can trade with us.

It is impossible for us to enumerate the lines in our different departments. We have not the time or space, for if we were to attempt it, we would have to charter the whole paper, and this would be unfair to our neighbors.

Every one knows BAUM BROS., where you can find all you need at City prices, in a City-like Store. When strangers enter our Store, they are simply astonished to find an establishment in Camden where you have such an excellent and varied Stock to select from, consisting of Dry Goods and Clothing, HATS AND CAPS, MENS', LADIES', AND CHILDRENS' SHOES, BLANKETS AND CARPETS, CLOAKS AND SHAWLS, LINENS, DAMASKS AND TOWELS, HARDWARE, GROCERIES, Crockery and Glass Ware, FURNITURE TO COMPARE WITH ANY CITY, WAGONS & BUGGIES, Road Carts & Harness.

And don't forget, if you wish to see a real WHOLESALE ESTABLISHMENT, BAUM BROS.' is the place to see it. We have over fifty packages of Goods in Bales and Cases not opened, all for Wholesale trade.

We get car loads of Goods, and we sell them too. We are prepared to serve every body at City prices. Come soon and be served, and we can show you Bleached Goods at Three Cents per Yard!

Just think of it, Three Cents per yard for Bleached Goods! No other House in the world offers such a bargain; and

A Boy's Suit for Ninety-Five Cents! Think of it! Come and see us—ONE AND ALL.
